Crafted in France circa 1930, this charismatic pair of early 20th-century leather club chairs blends timeless French comfort with a bold American graphic twist. Upholstered in rich, cognac-toned leather with a well-worn patina, the chairs feature generous, rounded armrests and a barrel-style back outlined with traditional nailhead trim. Each chair is uniquely embellished with a stenciled "USA 6" insignia and eagle motif across the backrest, suggesting a custom or commemorative design that nods to early aviation or sporting culture. Deep seat cushions and low-slung frames offer exceptional comfort and relaxed style. Measuring 34 inches wide by 35.5 inches deep and 32.25 inches high, with a seat height of 15.5 inches, these well-proportioned club chairs are ideal for a library, study, or lounge. In good condition commensurate with age and use. Some wear on them. See detailed images. A rare and visually striking pair with both decorative impact and historical appeal.
