Complement your office shelving with this pair of dog Waterloo Cup winners. Crafted in the UK circa 1910 and built of brass, the dogs hold significant historical value, as they represent esteemed champions of the prestigious Waterloo Cup. Colonel North's Fullerton, a legendary canine athlete, triumphed in the cup an impressive four times between 1889 and 1892, solidifying its status as a true champion. Furthermore, Farndon Ferry, another exceptional dog, claimed victory in the cup once in 1902. Each figure is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and features a rich patinated brass finish throughout. Measures: 10.75"W x 1.25"D x 8.5"H
