Stage your living room, office, or dining room with this elegant pair of colorful vintage planters. Crafted in France circa 1980 and rectangular in shape, each tole jardinière stands on clawed feet over a integral boxed base. The body which slightly widens at the top, is decorated with Greek motifs, and further embellished with a center laurel-wreath medallion. The planter is dressed with lion head side handles. The Neoclassical style flower pots are in excellent condition with a rich patinated painted finish, in the red palette with gilt accents throughout. Each planter is further dressed with an inside tole liner. Measures: 13" W x 8.5" D x 10.5" H.
