Warm honey tones and dramatic burl figuring give this pair of bedside tables a striking decorative presence. Crafted in France circa 1970, the cabinets are veneered in richly figured burl elm, with swirling grain, clustered knots, and natural variations that create exceptional depth across the tops, curved fronts, sides, and open interiors.

Each nightstand features a rounded demilune profile with a single drawer fitted with a polished chrome knob. Below, two open shelves provide practical storage for books, decorative objects, or bedside essentials while preserving the streamlined silhouette associated with French Art Deco design. The compact proportions and gently curved fronts lend the pair a refined architectural quality without appearing heavy.

Finished on all visible surfaces and raised on discreet feet, these versatile pieces may be used as bedside tables, nightstands, end tables, or accent cabinets in a bedroom, living room, or study. Their clean lines and expressive veneer allow them to complement both traditional and contemporary interiors.

The pair is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a warm polished finish showcasing the exceptional burl elm grain throughout.
