Dress a powder room or girl's bedroom with this charming pair of vintage wall sconces adorned with floral motifs. Crafted in Paris, France circa 1950, each single-light fixture is decorated with delicate hand-painted porcelain flower blooms, evoking a sense of vintage romance and French elegance. The intricate metalwork showcases gracefully flowing curves and finely detailed leaf motifs, offering a soft and whimsical silhouette. Each arm is newly wired and topped with a decorative candle cover sleeve, blending antique style with modern practicality. The colorful porcelain flowers individually hand-painted in soft shades of pink and blue add a cheerful burst of color and a touch of artistry to wall accents. The vintage single light wall sconces are in excellent condition commensurate and age and use, and adorn a rich patinated bronze finish accented with bright colors. Perfect for flanking a mirror or adding a feminine accent to any space, this pair brings timeless charm and delicate detail to any home.
