Add celestial elegance to your walls with this striking pair of antique-style sunburst mirrors. Crafted in France circa 1960, each mirror is hand-carved from wood and finished in a radiant gilded patina, evoking the grandeur of early 20th-century French design. The dynamic composition features layered, fluted rays radiating outward in varying lengths, forming a richly textured frame around the convex mirrored center. The circular glass centers are lightly foxed, enhancing the vintage appeal and adding a sense of age and authenticity. The convex shape offers playful distortion and reflected light, making these mirrors as functional as they are decorative. In excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with scattered surface wear on glass that enrich their timeworn charm, these decorative mirrors would be a perfect addition for flanking a mantel, anchoring a gallery wall, or adding historical character to any traditional or eclectic interior. 22" diameter
