Decorate a master bath or entry with this important pair of antique wall mirrors. Crafted in the Burgundy region of France, circa 1950, and over 5.5 feet in high, the mirrors have traditional, timeless lines with elegant rounded corners. The tall rectangular frames are decorated with a luxurious silver leaf finish over discrete engraved geometric motifs. The classic wall pieces with their original glass and sturdy wood backing, are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorn a rich and bright patinated silvered finish. New wire in the back for easy handling and installation. Versatile, these large Louis Philippe style mirrors could be added to a number of rooms in your home for a traditional French style, including in a living room on each side of a fire place, or use in a master bathroom over her/his sink. Measures: 39.5" W x 67.5" H.
