Decorate a master bathroom or entry with this elegant pair of antique wall mirrors. Crafted in the Burgundy region of France, circa 1950, and rectangular in shape, the mirrors have traditional, timeless lines with rounded corners. The frames are decorated with a luxurious silver leaf finish over discrete engraved geometric motifs. The classic wall pieces with their original glass and sturdy wood backing, are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorn a rich and bright patinated silvered finish. New wire in the back for easy handling and installation. These Louis Philippe style mirrors could be added to a number of rooms in your home for a traditional French style, including in a dining room, or placed on each side of a fire place. Measures: 29.5" W x 52" H.
