Beautifully sculpted and colorful, this pair of large, antique Majolica vases would be a wonderful addition to a mantel, tabletop or bookshelf. Crafted in France, circa 1950, each hand painted piece features two elegantly sculpted handles and a wide neck over a scalloped rim at the pediment; each colorful vase is decorated with ornate floral motifs in high relief including blooming roses and green foliage. The majestic vessels are in excellent condition and the flowers and leaves have a rich color palette of white, purple, pink and green on a blue and green gradient background. Elevate any living room, office, or entryway with this tall and stately porcelain urns. Markings on the underside with engraved number 902 for further authentication. Measures: 13.5" W x 11.5" D x 25.75" H.
