Add a touch of Italian elegance and soft color to a bedroom, living room, or office with this beautiful pair of antique-style Murano art glass table lamps. Crafted in Italy circa 1960, each lamp features a hand-blown ribbed glass body in a luminous powder blue hue infused with delicate gold aventurine flecks, creating a shimmering effect as the light passes through the glass.

The sculptural baluster-form bases are complemented by brass fittings with decorative crown galleries and faux candle sleeves, giving the lamps a refined, timeless appearance. Newly wired and in excellent working order, the pair is fitted with custom pleated shades trimmed in coordinating blue and gold braid, perfectly complementing the color of the glass. The shades are included.

These Mid-Century lamps are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with a rich polished finish, light wear consistent with age, and beautiful hand-blown glass throughout.

Dimensions: 9" Diameter x 14.5" H (to top of shade)
