

PAIR OF MID-CENTURY READING SHRINER MONKEY SCULPTURE BOOKENDS

$425

SKU: 231-333

Stock: N/A

Categories: Miscellaneous Accessories, Statues, Busts & Figurines

Elevate your space with these captivating hand-painted heavy plaster bookends, showcasing a delightful depiction of two monkeys engrossed in the Tales of the Empire books. Crafted in France circa 1960, this work of art mesmerizes with its vibrant colors and intricate details, both on the chimps and the books they rest against. The books themselves are crafted with such meticulousness that they appear as if the chimpanzees are genuinely immersed in reading them. The exquisite details bring the scene to life, evoking a sense of whimsy and curiosity. These remarkable figures are in excellent condition, commensurate with age and use. They are the perfect piece for adorning a library shelf, commode, or buffet, adding a touch of charm to any setting. Measures 6.75"W x 4.75"D x 7.75"H