Crafted in France circa 1880, this elegant pair of Napoleon III three-tier side tables combines refined decorative detail with practical functionality. Each table features a rectangular engraved brass top tray, richly decorated with delicate scrollwork and ornamental motifs typical of the Second Empire period. The raised gallery edges and small corner finials help secure the removable tray while adding a refined architectural touch. The tables are supported by slender turned brass uprights ending in tapered feet, giving the pieces a light and graceful silhouette. Beneath the brass top are two black lacquered wooden shelves framed with brass trim, providing useful surface space for books, decorative objects, or serving pieces while creating a striking contrast with the warm tone of the brass structure. Both decorative and functional, these antique tables work beautifully as side tables, nightstands, or accent pieces in a living room, bedroom, or hallway. The combination of engraved brass, lacquered shelves, and elegant proportions reflects the sophisticated decorative taste of the Napoleon III period. Excellent antique condition commensurate with age and use. Dimensions: 16"W x 13"D x 26.5"H
