Elevate your interiors with this exquisite pair of antique Aubusson tapestry pillows. Crafted in France circa 1780, each large cushion showcases a finely woven floral bouquet featuring chrysanthemums, roses, and foliage in soft tones of blush, cream, sage, and faded crimson, all set against a muted beige and pale blue background. The tapestry fronts are bordered with rich red velvet trim, decorated with gold gimp braid and multi-color tassel fringe that adds a luxurious touch. Backed in silk and plumply filled, these decorative pillows blend refined craftsmanship with timeless French elegance. Subtle fading and minor wear enhance their antique charm, while the vivid flowers maintain their romantic appeal. Ideal for styling on a settee, master bed, or within a classic salon, this pair brings texture, history, and warmth to traditional or French country interiors. The earliest center for the weaving of tapestries in France, can be traced back to 1457 in a small town situated on the banks of the river Creuse, Aubusson is now associated the world over for its tapestries. Each Measures: 28"W x 11"D x 25"H
