These elegant two-drawer bedside tables were created in France, circa 1990. Bombe in shape on all three sides, each chest stands on cabriole legs decorated with bronze mounts at the shoulders, and ending with bronze sabot feet. The scalloped apron is embellished with a foliage bronze mount in the center. The sides with serpentine shape, are decorated with two-tone inlaid marquetry veneer of bird and floral motif. Both serpentine drawers are embellished with flower and bird inlay decor, and dressed with flourishing brass handles and matching escutcheons. The surface is dressed with a shaped variegated beige marble top. The nightstands are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorn a rich French polish finish. Place these cabinets on either side of a mantel in a living room, or use them as large bedside tables in a master bedroom. Measures: 34.5" W x 21" D x 34" H.
