Add a jewel-toned accent to your decor with this petite Spanish sunburst mirror, crafted in the early 20th century. Made of cast iron with a warm gilt finish, the richly detailed frame features foliate scrollwork and raised ornamentation surrounding a central mirror plate. Four striking cobalt blue glass insets offer bold contrast and reflect light with vibrant depth. Measuring 10.25 inches wide by 12 inches high, this mirror retains its original glass and backing, along with a small hanging loop for wall display. The glass surface shows minor speckling and wear consistent with age, adding to its antique charm. Perfect for an entryway, or as part of a layered gallery wall, this Spanish mirror combines bold color with decorative metalwork in a compact, eye-catching form. Excellent condition commensurate with age and use.
