This large suite of ten French dining chairs offers a complete, ready-to-place solution with strong presence and classic Louis XIII styling. Crafted circa 1980 in solid oak, the chairs feature bold scrolled legs joined by traditional H-form stretchers, giving the set a grounded, architectural look ideal for a substantial dining table.

The two armchairs anchor the ends with wide scrolling arms and generous proportions, adding comfort and definition to the overall arrangement. The frames carry a rich, warm oak finish that pairs beautifully with the lighter upholstery. Each chair is upholstered in a finely scaled floral fabric in soft tones of cream, red, and muted green, creating a clean, timeless look that works easily in both formal and relaxed interiors. The seats are thick and comfortable, and the upholstery remains in excellent condition.

A versatile and cohesive French dining set with great scale and presence. Excellent condition commensurate with age and use.
