Crafted in France by Gien circa 1920, this elegant service set includes eight porcelain escargot plates and eight silver-plated spoons. Each plate, measuring 8.25 inches in diameter by 7.5 inches across the handles, features twelve molded wells for escargots, finished in a warm golden glaze with a sponged brown rim. The underside bears the stamp Porcelaine Gien France for authenticity. The service is complete with eight silver-plated escargot spoons, each measuring 6 inches long, designed for refined dining and practical serving. Together, the plates and spoons embody the timeless French tradition of escargot service, blending beauty with utility. Founded in 1821, the Gien manufactory has been celebrated for generations for its faïence and porcelain, and this set reflects both the artistry and quality for which the house is renowned. The condition is excellent, with only minor wear consistent with age and use, making the ensemble both collectible and ready for service. Ideal for entertaining, this escargot set is perfect for a French country kitchen, coastal dining room, or any refined table setting
