Decorate a shelf, desk, or tabletop with this charming set of four decorative wooden treasure boxes. Crafted in the late century, each box features a traditional domed lid embellished with a hand-painted maritime scene depicting sailing vessels navigating coastal waters. The paintings are rendered in a colorful palette with expressive brushwork, creating a distinctive nautical character for each piece.

The boxes are constructed of wood with brass-mounted trim and decorative brass bead accents outlining the edges. Each retains its original brass latch and opens to reveal a black lacquered interior suitable for storing jewelry, keepsakes, letters, coins, or small collectibles. Graduated in size, the set nests visually together while offering a variety of storage options.

With their seafaring motifs, warm reddish-brown finish, and brass detailing, these decorative boxes bring a touch of coastal charm and vintage character to any interior. Display them together as a collection or use them individually throughout the home.

The vintage set is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with a rich patina on the brass mounts and minor wear consistent with age. The hand-painted decoration remains vibrant, and the boxes retain their original hardware.
