Enhance a console or entryway with this elegant set of vintage urns. Crafted in France circa 1990, each flower pot is designed in the neoclassical tradition and rests on a tall, black-painted pedestal base with recessed panels and classical reliefs. Made of plaster, the urns vary in size but share a cohesive aesthetic: gadrooned bodies adorned with floral garlands and sculpted putti clinging to the rim. The two larger urns feature a weathered gray finish that mimics aged stone, while the smaller urn displays a warm beige tone evocative of aged marble. Rich in architectural character and decorative charm, this trio is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and showcases a beautifully patinated surface. A striking decorative ensemble for any traditional or classical interior.
