This large antique two-piece marble stand with a bowl, crafted in Italy circa 1920, showcases a timeless classical Roman design. The jardinière features a large, rounded swivel basin atop a carved pedestal with an octagonal base. Likely used in a church as a baptismal font, pieces like this later became popular as decorative jardinières in grand homes and estates. The basin is ideal for displaying greenery, adding elegance to any space. Its neutral palette of beige and brown tones highlights the natural beauty of the marble, complementing a variety of settings. The piece is in excellent condition, commensurate with age and use. Versatile for both indoor and outdoor settings, it could also function as a bird bath, a fountain, or a statement piece in a garden or entryway.
