Add charm and character to your garden, patio, or interior with this oversized terracotta piggy bank, sculpted in the shape of a joyful pig with exaggerated features and a cheerful grin. Crafted circa 1970, the piece boasts a rustic, weathered finish that reflects prior use in an outdoor setting, adding to its authentic charm and aged appeal. The terracotta surface shows gentle weathered look, lending the sculpture an earthy, lived-in look. A coin slot is discreetly positioned along the top, while an opening on the underside allows for retrieval, making it both decorative and functional. A useful item to catch the family's spare change, this whimsical pig is suitable for both indoor and outdoor use. It offers a playful accent to a garden, entryway, or covered porch. Durable and sturdy, it will continue to develop character with age. In excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich patinated antique finish with evidence of outdoor use. Bottom cover is missing, a simple large cork would work as an excellent stopper. Measures: 23.5" W x 12.25" D x 12" H.
