Bring the charm of the French wine country into your home with this decorative set of 12 vintage wooden Bordeaux wine crate labels. Crafted in France circa 2000, each rectangular wooden panel was originally part of a wine shipping crate and features the name, château illustration, or distinctive insignia of a renowned Bordeaux wine estate.

The collection includes twelve different château labels: La Tour du Pin Figeac, Château Trianon, Château Rocher Bellevue Figeac, Château Meyney, Château Marquis d'Alesme, Château Lesparre, Château d'Arcins, Les Fiefs de Lagrange, Château du Glana, Château Haut-Bages, Château de Fieuzal, and Château Gloria. Several panels also display vineyard classifications, appellations, and vintage dates, reflecting the rich winemaking heritage of the Bordeaux region.

Each wooden label retains its natural grain, warm honey-colored tones, and original printed or branded lettering, giving the collection an authentic rustic character. The varying typography, château illustrations, and traditional wine emblems create an attractive assortment that celebrates French viticulture.

Perfect for decorating a wine cellar, tasting room, home bar, or kitchen, these vintage panels can be arranged in a symmetrical grid or displayed individually as rustic French wall décor.

The set of 12 wooden wine crate labels is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with natural variations in wood tone and grain.

Dimensions: 13"W x 7"H (each panel).
