Introducing a timeless masterpiece to elevate your collection: this exquisite teal blue Hermès Scarf, an exquisite creation crafted in France circa 1984. This scarf bears the signature touch of renowned artist Francoise de la Perriere, whose name is elegantly printed in the lower right corner, ensuring its authenticity and artistic heritage. Named "Jeux de Paille," which translates to "Straw Games," the design proudly reflects a perfect blend of creativity and craftsmanship. The scarf showcases a captivating display of vibrant colors. At its center, two graceful birds and delicate butterflies are elegantly portrayed, surrounded by intricate floral and leaf motifs that weave a tapestry of beauty and elegance throughout the shawl. As a fashion accessory, this scarf is unparalleled, adding a touch of enchanting uniqueness to any outfit you pair it with. Whether you're dressing up for a formal event or seeking to elevate your everyday style, the Hermès Scarf will prove to be the perfect accent. This scarf comes in the original iconic Hermès square box. Both box and scarf are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. Scarf Measures 34"W x 35.5"H Box Measures 9.5"W x 9.5"H
